1 About this handbook

These regulations apply to all undergraduate programmes from the 2026-27 academic year unless stated otherwise. Where a department circular conflicts with this handbook, the handbook prevails.

2 Academic calendar

The odd semester runs from 15 July to 30 November 2026 and the even semester from 2 January to 15 May 2027. End-semester examinations begin two weeks after the last teaching day.

4.1 Registration

Students must register for courses on the student portal within the first week of each semester. Late registration is permitted for one further week with the approval of the head of department.

4.2 Attendance

A student must maintain a minimum of 75% attendance in each course to be eligible for the end-semester examination. Students with attendance between 65% and 75% may apply for condonation on medical grounds with supporting documents, subject to approval by the Dean of Academics.

4.3 Leave

Medical leave must be reported to the class coordinator within three working days, with a certificate from a registered medical practitioner.

5 Examinations

Each course is assessed through continuous internal evaluation for 40 marks and an end-semester examination for 60 marks. A minimum of 40% in each component is required to pass the course.

6.1 Grading

Performance is graded on a 10-point scale and the Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) is the credit-weighted mean of all grade points earned. A CGPA of 8.5 or above with no active backlogs places a student on the Dean's List for that semester.

6.2 Backlogs

A student who fails a course may reappear in the next end-semester examination. More than four active backlogs at the end of an academic year bars promotion to the next year.

7 Library

The central library is open from 8:00 AM to 8:00 PM on working days. Students may borrow up to four books for fourteen days; late returns attract a fine of ₹5 per book per day.

8 Hostel

Hostel gates close at 10:00 PM. Visitors are permitted in the common lounge between 4:00 PM and 7:00 PM with prior registration at the warden's office.

8.4 Anti-ragging

Ragging in any form is a disciplinary and criminal offence. Complaints can be made at any hour to the Anti-Ragging Committee through the university helpline 0281-555-0199.

9.3 Re-evaluation

Students may apply for re-evaluation within 7 days of result declaration by paying ₹500 per course through the student portal. Revised re-evaluation results are published within 21 days.
